"THREE LINK" HOSPITAL MAY MOVE TO IRVINGTON

RESPECTED CITIZEN PASSES TO FINAL REST SATURDAY

Mrs. Mary E. Bond Funeral Services Tuesday Morning

Mrs. Mary E. Bond, wife of the late Charles J. Bond, died at the home of her brother, John D. Harlan, of Irvington, February 1, 1930. Mrs. Bond was a daughter of the late George A. Harlan, a native of Contra Costa county, April 24, 1863. Mrs. Bond had been a resident of Irvington for the past 51 years, and was highly respected by all who knew her.

She had been in poor health for only a few months and about a month ago contracted the influenza, and for several days it seemed that she would be able to regain her health, however such was not the case.

She leaves a sister, Mrs. Malinda West, of Oakland, and two brothers, John D. and James Harlan, nieces, Geraldine, Thelma, Abbey, and Melba, nephews, Jimmy and Warren Harlan, of Irvington.

She was an aunt of Harry H. West, George H. West, George R. West, Howard and Edward West, of Oakland, also aunt of Mrs. Elenor Staats, and W. A. West, of San Francisco.

Funeral services were conducted from her late residence in Irvington at 9 a. m., Tuesday February 4, 1930, and thence to St. Joseph's Church, at Mission San Jose, where High Mass was said in response to her soul.

AMERICAN LEGION MEN TO PRACTICE MARKSMANSHIP

Members of the Washington Township American Legion post No. 195, have suddenly developed an interest in marksmanship, and have taken the first step in forming a rifle and pistol team.

E. Dixon Bristow has been appointed as a committee of one to arrange for affiliations with the National Rifle association through which the guns necessary will be obtained from the government. Organization of the pistol team entails less effort as some of the legionnaires have their own pocket artillery, and know how to use it, stated Mr. Bristow.

Mrs. J. E. Thane Injures Shoulder In Accident

Mrs. J. E. Thane, well known resident of Niles for many years, had a serious accident occur last week when she slipped and fell, dislocating her shoulder. Her many friends throughout Washington Township, and Alameda County wish her a very speedy and complete recovery.

PROGRESSIVE CITY RAISES $5000 AS BONUS TO SE- CURE I. O. O. F. BUILDING

It has been rumored that the Three Link Hospital, now in Livermore, is to be re-located some time in the near future and that it may be established in Irvington, as the business men of that city have made a bid for it and a tentative offer of $5,000.

The lease of the property in Livermore where the hospital is now located, will expire in July, and it is expected that the I. O. O. F. lodge, that maintains this institution, will look for a new location elsewhere.

It is very likely that other cities and towns will put in bids for this hospital, and it is probable that large amounts of money will be obtained for this purpose.

This would be a step toward real progress for any community to be chosen for this honor. It would mean additional patronage and growth, business houses, and private citizens alike being benefited.

Cottages costing approximately $50,000 would be a part of the building program of this project. These cottages would house the nurses' headquarters and living rooms. An institution of this kind would naturally attract many people, who otherwise would have no reason to visit or live in the community.

The healthful climate of Southern Alameda county, and Washington township particularly would be especially adaptable to those wishing to recover from an illness of any kind. There are no sudden changes in temperatures to fear, and the seasons are not addicted to extremes of heat or cold.

For a long time it has been known that the purity of the air and the soothing rays of the sun are beneficial to the human system, and for an abundance of both Washington township might well be chosen.

LANDSCAPING MEETS SAN LEANDRO'S ENDORSEMENT

At the weekly luncheon meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce letters from the San Leandro chamber were read and it was stated that that chamber will be glad to endorse the proposed landscaping plan for the Hayward highway beginning at the subway at the west extremity of Niles.

Harvey Braun, president of the chamber, reported that J. C. Shinn represented the Niles Chamber of Commerce at the meeting held by the Board of Supervisors to discuss the proposed closing of the Mission Peak road.

C. S. Smith and W. E. Jones represented Niles on the good-will commission which is to visit the proposed Sunnyvale dirigible base.

E. A. Ellsworth was appointed chairman of the street oiling committee, and as he was absent this week, no report on the work was given. However, it was suggested that a representative be sent to the office of George Posey, county surveyor, to determine the exact cost of the oiling project for Niles.

SEVENTH GRADE WINS DRIVE AT NILES SCHOOL

The paper drive of the Niles Grammar school was won by the seventh grade, and this grade was also highest in the "A" division having collected 2,546 pounds of paper. "B" division, composed of the first, second, third and fourth grades gave second honors to the third grade for it collected 2,504 pounds of paper. This last week has been an interesting one for the boys and girls and the competition between the two teams was keen.

The money from the sale of these papers will be used for the students of the school.

MRS. E. MARTIN IS BRIDGE LUNCHEON HOSTESS MONDAY

Mrs. Ernest Martin was hostess at a bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth, at her home in Niles Glen, Monday. Mrs. C. E. Martenstein had the highest score, and Mrs. Robert Tyson won the consolation prize.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth are leaving Saurday, February 8, on the steamer Malolo, for a vacation in Honolulu, and they expect to be away a month or longer. Many dinner parties and luncheons have been given in their honor, and their scores of friends are wondering when the couple will find time to pack the necessary baggage for the trip.

BOY UNDERGOES OPERATION

Allison McMahan, young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McMahan, was taken ill suddenly Sunday night with an attack of appendicitis, which became so serious that an operation resulted. He was taken to the Hayward General Hospital Monday evening, and was immediately put under the knife. The operation was very successful and the boy is recovering nicely. It is expected that he will return to his home soon.

Dr. E. C. Grau performed the operation.

FATHER HOLOHAN PASSES AT 2 A. M. WEDNESDAY MORNING

Heart Attack Given as the Cause of His Sudden Death

Reverend Father T. W. Holohan, of the Niles Catholic church, passed quietly away at his home at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning, February 4, from an attack of heart failure. He had been troubled with this ailment for the last four years, and it became more noticeable in the last week. Tuesday he complained of feeling unwell, and at nine o'clock in the evening the first slight attack occurred. The last attack came suddenly, and resulted in his death.

Father Holohan was 48 years of age at the time of his passing. He was a native of Kilkenny county, Ireland, and received his education and training in a college there. He was a teacher in San Francisco before taking up his duties in Niles, where he served for a year.

It is expected that the funeral services will be held from St. Peters church, San Francisco, but no definite arrangements as to time and place have been made as yet.

Father Holohan is survived by three sisters, Mrs. William Raphael, of Oakland, and two who are at a convent in Ireland; and three brothers, who are also in religious seclusion.

Father Holohan was greatly loved by his many friends and the members of his church, who now mourn his passing. His kindness and brotherly love were wonderful, and many lives have been brightened by the aid of his cheerful smile, encouraging words, and helping hands.

ODD FELLOWS OF IRVINGTON PLAN BANQUET SAT.

San Jose Team To Confer
Third Degree On Candidates

Several new members were initiated at the regular meeting of Odd Fellows which was held Monday night. Several interesting topics were also discussed, and chief among them was that of the new I. O. O. F. building which is to be erected in the near future. As yet no definite plans have been made, but the ways and means of this project are under consideration.

It was announced at the close of the meeting that Saturday night, February 8, there would be a gala affair given by the Irvington lodge of Odd Fellows. The San Jose degree team, famed throughout its jurisdiction for the work it does, will confer the third degree on the candidates.

After the business of the evening is disposed of a banquet will be served, following which a program of musical selections and songs will be presented. Lodge members from Niles, Pleasanton and Livermore, will attend this affair and an enjoyable time is anticipated by all.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Jones Entertain On Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Jones entertained twenty guests at a bridge party Saturday evening at their home. The time was passed very pleasantly, and those who won prizes were Mrs. R. Bendel and L. Duffy for highest scores, and William Ebright and Mrs. J. E. Townsend, consolation.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

By NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

WE SHOUTED TOO SOON

For a long time we thought we were wrong—dead wrong. For seven years we were in the vanguard of that small band of men who were fighting to make the Swing-Johnson bill a national issue. We carried on the contest at the seat of its inception—the home in which it was born—Imperial Valley. The warmth with which we championed the cause and the force with which we assailed the enemies of this measure often found us in a delicate political situation, and on one occasion an offended judge from Los Angeles, sitting on a case interlocked with this bill, cited us for contempt of court. We did not confess to lack of respect for law, but admitted none for him, and insisted that his presence on the superior court bench of Imperial county was an affront to its citizens. He eased his hurt pride, and assuaged his wounded dignity by sentencing us to five days in jail. But that is another story.

Just why we believed ourselves to be wrong and subsequent events proved that we were not, is in this wise:

That the Swing-Johnson bill could pass a congress and senate controlled by the old-line Republicans, seemed to us a fantastic dream. With the government dominated by gigantic wealth, it appeared inconsistent that any measure designed to take away from the power trust its monopoly in the southwest could pass congress. But it did pass, and we thought then that after all some good could come out of Nazereth. It seemed to us when we reasoned it out, that the Republican party felt it must demonstrate to the people that it was not controlled by big interests, and in the passage of this measure it had defied the power trust.

Almost two years has slipped by since that measure became a law and not a wheel turns and not a bag of cement has been mixed at Boulder Canyon. Las Vegas, Nevada, became a boom city, and prepared for immediate activity at the dam site, encouraged in the belief by an announcement of the interior department. Business flourished for months, stimulated by anticipation. Now the town is dead. It is very rapidly becoming a belief in the minds of Las Vegas citizens that powerful interests are delaying work. And that is the belief of the Township Register.

We were right after all!

Wilbur, interior department head, a man who has worked under orders all his life, apparently is still taking orders. And the orders bring no joy to the citizens of the Southwest who dream of cheaper electricity—no happiness to the industries of California which had planned great expansion through available power at a minimum cost.

The great dam may be built some day—a day when most of us now living will be no more—and its dedication, if perchance it be publicly built and managed, will find its original proponents faded from the memory of that generation.

Wealth is still supreme. It gets what it wants.

The nation is too complex to act in accord, except in a national emergency that affects the lives of its citizens. The interests are so divergent, so multitudinous that an issue in Maine means nothing to the man in Florida—and a Japanese menace in California is scoffed at in New York. The country is like a clumsy lad of sixteen who measures six feet four and weighs as much as a young ox. He has the size but not the grace. That is the situation in America. Too much bulk and not enough finesse.

An evil in Indiana should be an evil here. But it is not. Virtue is divided. Selfishness is united under one standard, and hangs together. It controls most of the metropolitan newspapers. The pulpit dares not to go too far—for who supports the church? certainly not the man of little means. He gives his dimes—the bond-holder his hundreds!

Even the public libraries exclude "dangerous" books that question the present system of government. The colleges are schools for gentlemen's

SAFETY COUNCIL
ASKS CO-OPERATION
DURING CAMPAIGN

SAFETY COUNCIL—More than 2,000 lives were lost on the streets and highways of California last year," states D. W. Pontius, member of the Executive Committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce. "Non-observance of the Arterial and Boulevard Stop signs was one of the principal causes of this heavy death toll. Approximately 80 per cent of the drivers do observe these stops, but we must educate the minority to strict observance of the signs in order to protect our own lives."

Through the cooperation of the State Motor Vehicle Department, the Police Departments and women's organizations of California, every effort will be made by the Safety Conference of the State Chamber during this month to bring about a general observance of Boulevard and Arterial stops. This campaign is announced, is part of the yearly educational program of the Safety Conference, to check the rising toll of deaths and injuries on the streets and highways of our state.

Bureau Hears Interesting
Address on Important Matter

Water conservation and what it actually means to the farmer of this district was the subject of Charles Long, prominent Hayward agriculturist, at the monthly meeting of the Pleasanton and Livermore branch of the Farm Bureau at Pleasanton Saturday.

Mr. Long spoke at length about the necessity of each farmer practicing water conservation and to lend his support to conservation measures, declaring that "water will either mean continued life or death of farming in this section." Considerable discussion followed Mr. Long's address, and it is contemplated that efforts along the water conservation line will be carried on by the agriculturists of this district.

Among other items of business taken up by the farm bureau was a discussion of the proposed membership drive which is to be held in the nature of a contest between the local bureau and that of Hayward. It is anticipated that the campaign will get underway as soon as the current planting season is ended.

Much has been accomplished in the matter of eradicating from the farm lands the nuisance of squirrels, according to statements made by T. S. McGraw, who is in charge of that work, during the course of his remarks. The wheat situation was ably discussed by Elmer Brown, extension specialist; and an interesting discussion of timely farm topics was led by Charles Deane, former president of the county farm bureau. Tom Morrison of Hayward, county farm advisor, was another of the speakers of the evening. He devoted his remarks to purely farm matters.

AT FOX-OAKLAND

If a woman cant hold her husband does she deserve to have another?

Norma Shearer settles the problem in her third all-talking picture, "Their Own Desire," slated for the Fox Oakland Theatre screen Friday, February 7.

The thrills of "Mary Dugan," the smartness and romance of "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney," enhanced by the beauty and artistry of a great star are combined in this ultra-modern love drama. Miss Shearer plays the lovely and very sophisticated daughter of a charming and very sophisticated father. He leaves his wife for another woman and Norma increases the trouble by falling in love with the son of her father's mistress.

Old-time melodies with modern trimmings are brought out by Hermie King and a troupe of seasoned performers in Fanchon and Marco's "Overtures" Idea on the stage. An anvil chorus in the clouds and an animate boot dance on a darkened stage are oddities that contrast with the work of Edison and Gregory.

FAMILY NIGHT DINNER AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH BIG SUCCESS

An unusually large crowd attended the Congregational church family night dinner Friday, and it was reported that the Ladies of the Guild were barely able to accommodate so many people. However they managed very well, and the late-comers were given the same service that the others received.

After the dinner the business meeting was held, and at this time reports from the Sunday school, Ladies' Guild, church treasurer, and minister were heard. The election of officers was held, and those who served in the past year were re-elected. The members of the board of trustees are: J. C. Shinn, J. E. Townsend, Mrs. William H. Ford, Mrs. A. A. Hatch, and Miss Martha Sanford. The deacons are J. C. Shinn, and E. A. Ellsworth. Deaconesses are Mrs. P. A. Ellis and Mrs. Mary Barnard. E. A. Ellsworth was elected treasurer, and Mrs. E. C. Grau was elected clerk. Four new members were officially welcomed into the church, they were Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Grau, and Reverend and Mrs. Elmer Brinkmeyer.

After the business was disposed of the remainder of the evening was passed socially. The Sunday school orchestra, composed of 12 players, gave four selections, and it was reported that the church was proud of them for the progressive spirit they show in trying to make their work a success. These players are members of the Grammar school orchestra, and although they have received only a weekly lesson from the school music instructor they are able to give a very fine performance.

Reverend Brinkmeyer stated that anyone who cared to join this Sunday school orchestra would be very welcome to do so without feeling obligated in any way to attend the Sunday school, or church services.

In addition to the music by the orchestra there was community singing of folk songs and spirituals, and also stunt singing by the young people present. Recently the church went to the expense of purchasing 100 new songs, which will be sung at such occasions as the family night gatherings and old fashioned sings.

Reverend Brinkmeyer reported that on Sunday, February 2, the largest attendance he had ever had in Niles was present at the communion services. The Communion table was presided over by the deacons and deaconesses of the church. He also expressed himself as being greatly pleased with the response he received from his congregation.

OFFICERS OF ODD FELLOWS INSTALLED

Two Hundred Members and Friends Witness Work Monday

Before one of the largest audiences in the history of the Pleasanton Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges, officers of the two organizations were conducted to their respective seats at a public installation held in the Odd Fellows' hall Monday night.

Miss Neeta Saunders and Peter Madsen were installed into the highest office of their respective lodges, that of noble grand.

Mrs. Anna Holm of Livermore, district deputy president, was the installing officer for the Rebekahs and Roy Rose of Niles, deputy grand master, acted in a similar capacity for the installation of the Odd Fellows. Other distinguished guests included Mrs. Del Savage of Livermore; past president of the Rebekah Assembly; F. A. Hunter of Alvarado, deputy marshal; and Lenora Maggani of Oakland, grand treasurer of the Rebekah Assembly.

Each of the honored guests were called upon for short talks. They responded with addresses of general interest to the large gathering of members and non-members.

Mrs. J. C. Tompkins, past noble grand, was presented by the lodge with the past noble grand pin in recognition of her work in the order during the eighteen months she presided as noble grand. When called upon by Noble Grand Miss Saunderson, Mrs. Tompkins expressed her appreciation of the gift and presented to two past noble grands a pin similar to her own.

Those honored by Mrs. Tompkins were Mrs. Ada Silver and Mrs. Kate Kruse. Both of these women are past noble grands, but had not received such a pin. They had served the order in that capacity during its early struggles, long before the lodge here was financially able to make such presentation to its retiring officer.

After the close of the installation the guests numbering over two hundred were served a delicious dinner in the dining room of the hall. Dancing and other forms of entertainment concluded the program.

STORK PARTY IS GIVEN MOTHER BY REBEKAHS

Mrs. Wanda West was honored by the Pleasanton Rebekah lodge last Thursday afternoon with a Stork shower held in the Odd Fellows' hall, Pleasanton. Several score of Rebekahs were present, bringing so many gifts that when the baby was wheeled into the hall in the buggy it hardly held the offerings.

After the program refreshments were served under the direction of Miss Edna Casterson assisted by Clara Casterson. The dining room was decorated in pink and the center piece was a large doll dressed in pink ruffles. A silver moon hung above and silver threads flowing from it gave the appearance of rain in the distance. The favors were in the shape of baby shoes.

JOHN HANSEN, OF PLEASANTON QUITS FACULTY

Resignation of Popular Instructor Is Accepted With Regret

Sincere regret was expressed in Pleasanton last week by the many friends and acquaintances of John S. Hansen, over the announcement of his resignation as teacher of the seventh grade of the Pleasanton Grammar School. Mr. Hansen has been in charge of that class for several years, and has built up a wide friendship throughout the community.

Mr. Hansen had been contemplating resigning for some time owing to the strain of continuous teaching, but not until recently was his move made definite. Some time elapsed, also, after his resignation was presented to the school trustees before its acceptance. The resignation became effective January 31.

Miss Lou Conrad of Oakland, has been employed to succeed Mr. Hansen, according to the announcement made by Principal V. Bernard Johnson. Miss Conrad comes to Pleasanton highly recommended as a grammar school teacher. During the past semester Miss Conrad has been substituting in the Oakland school, and was in a position to accept the call to Pleasanton on short notice.

LEGION AUXILIARY PLANS TWO EVENTS DURING FEBRUARY

Two interesting events are being planned by the Pleasanton unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, according to announcements made by officers of the organization this week.

Of especial interest the more important of the two affairs will be an initiation ceremony to be held about the middle of February. While no definite date has been set for this event, plans are going forward rapidly, according to Mrs. Hazel Hansen, president.

The other event is the annual entertainment for the Alameda County Council of the American Legion Auxiliary, which is to be held on February 26. This is arranged jointly by the member organizations, and usually proves to be one of the outstanding entertainments of the year.

E. B. Hodges, principal of the Washington Union High school, was the main speaker at the recent meeting of the Southern Alameda County Principals' Association held at the Green Shutter hotel in Hayward. Thirty-two people were present from the various districts.

The subject of Mr. Hodges' talk was the articulation of the elementary and high schools, and gave several suggestions for the co-ordination of the two.

Other principals who gave some interesting suggestions and ideas were F. Reid, superintending principal of the Hayward Grammar schools; F. D. Johnson, of the Hayward High school, and Joseph Dias, of the Centerville Grammar school.

These coats are the exact replicas of those used by the fire departments of Oakland, San Francisco and other cities.

L. BETTENCOURT LAUDS PLAN OF PROPOSED GYM

Suitable Site Chosen For Erection of Concrete Edifice

Larry Bettencourt, former Washington Union High school student, visited there recently in company with two friends, Ralph Kress and John Illia. The three boys are well-known baseball players with the St. Louis Browns. Larry Bettencourt was at one time a member of Clarence Saunders professional football team, that plays in the east.

Mr. Bettencourt spoke before the student assembly and gave some new ideas concerning sports and the experiences of professional players. He also stated that he was delighted to learn of the new gymnasium which is to be erected at the High school soon. He declared that no coach can do his best work without the convenience of a suitable gymnasium. Mr. Bettencourt also said that proper equipment stimulated interest in sports among the students and made them feel proud to take part in such activities. This talk was enjoyed by the assembly, and school officials were proud to have the three famous men visit the school.

Mr. Moore, a member of the High school faculty, also spoke at this assembly and reported that he and Birge Clarke, of Palo Alto, architect who drew the gymnasium plans, had examined the proposed site of the building, and had tested the ground to a depth of six feet and found that it is composed of a mixture of sand and clay with no deposits or pockets of quicksand. Thus the fact is established that this site is very well adapted to the use to which it will be put. The gymnasium is to be built of concrete reinforced with steel, assuring strength and dependability.

LINCOLN MEDAL GIVEN IN HIGH SCHOOL CONTEST

CHEVALIER ON T & D PROGRAM FOR THIS WEEK

Charming Maurice Chevalier, idol of France and America's newest sensation, will open his second week in "The Love Parade" at the T & D theater, Oakland, Friday, February 7.

The magnetic Franchman is smashing all records with his songs, his wit and sparkling personality. "The Love Parade" entirely eclipses that first triumph, "Innocents of Paris." Now he has a role that was tailored for him—a role that gives him full chance to exercise his many-faceted talent. He is a devil—but a fascinating devil who can make a woman forget her husband or a queen her throne.

A clever story dealing with a count whose many escapades in Paris come to the attention of the queen. He is ordered home for punishment and finds it—in her arms. Jeanette MacDonald, beautiful star of the stage, plays the queen who forgot to be a queen, and Lupino Lane and Lillian Roth are on deck with their rollicking humor.

W. U. H. S. BAND TO ENTER STATE CONTEST BEING HELD SATURD

Will Be Largest Group Of Players In The Competition

The music committee met with the representative citizens of Washington Township, February 5 to discuss ways and means of sending the Washington Union High school band to the state competition at Sacramento, February 8. Mr. Kimber, musical instructor, has been going among the different schools in the township and has chosen 35 members of bands, who are especially talented, to make the trip to Sacramento with the 65 players from the High school.

The Washington Union High school band will be the largest at this competition. It is expected that the band boys will ride to Sacramento in two railroad passenger coaches, and this method of travel is favored by Mr. Kimber, for it would make better supervision possible.

It was stated that school officials were most pleased with the performance of the players from the grammar school, many of whom are better than some of the student musicians of the high school.

It was reported that the High school band would shortly give concerts for the citizens of the township. The players are working hard, and wonderful progress and improvement is being shown. This has been the first opportunity Mr. Kimber has had to all his time to the High musicians, and he is there them masterpieces of classical chrestation, not merely jazz. This is an indication of the high that the students are aspiring musically. At the recent the body play, they gave some beautiful renditions, one Hungarian Dance No. Pat- others being from Jocelyn, valleria Rusticana. Recently the band has bing weekly concerts at the Friday afternoon assembly the loud applause received as the audience was proof they music was greatly apprebe. This innovation was into January 1, and since that then quality of performance has improving, and as it does the interest of the students be keener. It is hoped that in future this band will make e that will be well known ey world of worth-while music on as

THREE BATTLES
This last battle with the bandits is the third one in which the Bachs have participated during the past year.

On January 4, Joe Brady and Ray Moore, of St. Louis, Mo., gunmen, made an attempt to rob Mr. Bach. He fought both with a gun and succeeded in wounding them, Brady so seriously that it was expected he would not recover. He survived, and now is an inmate of San Quentin.

A restaurant employee, Ted Olsen, assisted in capturing the pair, and he narrowly missed being shot when Brady returned his gunfire.

Ten days before bandits had been chased from the Bach service station when an attempt had been made to steal a load of tires. Mr. Bach fired at the two, R. Miller and Ed Tracy, and they were captured, Tracy having received a bullet wound in his hand.

At present Mr. and Mrs. Bach are under medical care, and improvement is expected. Mr. Bach hasn't been able to resume his work as yet.

Since this last gun-fight Mrs. Bach has been sworn in as a deputy sheriff.

CANNED GOODS GET LOST SOMEHOW

TRAMPS, OR mayhap, some growing boy who couldn't get enough to eat at home, raided the cafeteria at the Pleasanton Grammar School last Friday night. The culprits made way with an assortment of canned goods and a general line of groceries.

While the theft may have been the work of hobos or tramps, no clues were found as to the pilferer's means of entrance or exit, and for that reason the supposition has been put forth that boys who may have known how to work the locks of the building are the guilty parties.

Mr. William Silva, a company near two friends, Ralph Kress and John Illia. The three boys are well-known baseball players with the St. Louis Browns. Larry Bettencourt was at one time a member of Clarence Saunders professional football team, that plays in the east.

Mr. Bettencourt spoke before the student assembly and gave some new ideas concerning sports and the experiences of professional players. He also stated that he was delighted to learn of the new gymnasium which is to be erected at the High school soon. He declared that no coach can do his best work without the convenience of a suitable gymnasium. Mr. Bettencourt also said that proper equipment stimulated interest in sports among the students and made them feel proud to take part in such activities.

This talk was enjoyed by the assembly, and school officials were proud to have the three famous men visit the school.

Mr. Moore a member of the High school faculty, also spoke at this assembly and reported that he and Birge Clarke, of Palo Alto, architect who drew the gymnasium plans, had examined the proposed site of the building, and had tested the ground to a depth of six feet and found that it is composed of a mixture of sand and clay with no deposits or pockets of quicksand. Thus the fact is established that this site is very well adapted to the use to which it will be put.

The gymnasium is to be built of concrete reinforced with steel, assuring strength and dependability.

CHEVALIER ON T & D PROGRAM FOR THIS WEEK

Charming Maurice Chevalier, idol of France and America's newest sensation, will open his second week in "The Love Parade" at the T & D theater, Oakland, Friday, February 7.

The magnetic Franchman is smashing all records with his songs, his wit and sparkling personality. "The Love Parade" entirely eclipses that first triumph, "Innocents of Paris." Now he has a role that was tailored for him—a role that gives him full chance to exercise his many-faceted talent. He is a devil—but a fascinating devil who can make a woman forget her husband or a queen her throne.

A clever story dealing with a count whose many escapades in Paris come to the attention of the queen. He is ordered home for punishment and finds it in her arms. Jeanette MacDonald, beautiful star of the stage, plays the queen who forgot to be a queen, and Lupino Lane and Lillian Roth are on deck with their rollicking humor.

W. U. H. S. BAND TO ENTER STATE CONTEST BEING HELD SATURDAY

Will Be Largest Group Of Players In The Competition

The music committee met with the representative citizens of Washington Township, February 5 to discuss ways and means of sending the Washington Union High school band to the state competition at Sacramento, February 8. Mr. Kimber, musical instructor, has been going among the different schools in the township and has chosen 35 members of bands, who are especially talented, to make the trip to Sacramento with the 65 players from the High school.

The Washington Union High school band will be the largest at this competition. It is expected that the band boys will ride to Sacramento in two railroad passenger coaches, and this method of travel is favored by Mr. Kimber, for it would make better supervision possible.

It was stated that school officials were most pleased with the performance of the players from the grammar school, many of whom are better than some of the student musicians of the high school.

It was reported that the High school band would shortly give concerts for the citizens of the township. The players are working hard, and wonderful progress and improvement is being shown. This has been the first opportunity Mr. Kimber has had to devote all his time to the High school musicians, and he is teaching them masterpieces of classical orchestration, not merely jazz. This is an indication of the high goal that the students are aspiring to musically. At the recent student body play, they gave some very beautiful renditions, one was the Hungarian Dance No. 5, and others being from Jocelyn, and Cavalleria Rusticana.

Recently the band has been giving weekly concerts at the regular Friday afternoon assembly, and the loud applause received from the audience was proof that the music was greatly appreciated. This innovation was introduced January 1, and since that time the quality of performance has been improving, and as it does so the interest of the students becomes keener. It is hoped that in the future this band will make a name that will be well known in the world of worth-while music.

Construction Progressing On Jimmy Logan's Airplane

James Logan, of Alvarado, and a member of the Senior class at the Washington Union High school, is constructing an airplane called the Heath Parasol, and he is being assisted by Verne Gordon. This plane is to be a sport model, a racing plane, and it is estimated that it will travel approximately 70 miles per hour, when finished. At present the finishing touches are being put on the frame work, which is being made of spruce, and special seamless tubing. After this work is completed the engine is to be designed by Mr. Mette, manager of the machine shop of the High school.

James Logan is 17 years of age, and is very much interested in all school activities. At the present time he is athletic manager of the student body, and is an able sportsman. A short time ago he gave a collection of 300 birds eggs that he spent nine years in acquiring, to the school museum. These eggs were gathered in this community, and practically every local wild bird is represented by one egg or more.

It is well to remember when diagnosing engine trouble that two things are essential; namely fuel and spark. Always make sure the trouble has not originated at either source mentioned before making any other adjustments.

Car Wins Instant Popularity With Its Many Improvements

Low Prices Add Greatly To New Durant's Universal Acclaim

An entirely new line of Durant cars, designated as the 6-14 series, is being revealed to the public today by Durant dealers throughout the nation.

Such is the announcement of J. E. Pashote, head of the Durant dealer organization of Washington Township, who is exhibiting the new 6-14 here, and advertising it in this issue of the Register. The cars in this new Durant line are priced to sell in the popular low-priced field.

According to Pashote, the new Durant line is precisely what the trade and public would expect from A. I. Philip, F. J. Haynes, and other members of the group of executives now in control of Durant Motors, Incorporated.

"The bodies of the new line, as a result of the accentuated horizontal and subdued vertical lines, as well as sweeping curves and the spear point decorative motif, suggest fleetness and speed," said the Durant Dealer.

Front seats of the sedan, coupe and roadster are adjustable. The short control lever, near the floor, is just behind the gearshift. The ratchet and screw construction employed makes the mechanism easy even for a woman to operate," says Barry.

The Durant Six-Fourteen engine, mounted in unit construction with a multiple spring, rubber cushioned single plate clutch and three speed Durant designed transmission, is tilted back to sufficient angle to afford a straight line drive under normal loading. The tubular propeller shaft employs two all-metal enclosed type universal joints. The rear axle is of built-up construction and affords a rigid support for the bearing mounted differential. With each wheel bearing independently adjustable no load or shock changes the adjustment of the bearing.

"Stedraulic brakes operate on 11-inch pressed steel drums, which are liberally flanged to insure against distortion and to afford good heat radiation," says the Durant dealer.

"Rear tire carrier is provided on standard models, while the two spare wire wheels of the deluxe types are carried in fender wells. Robe rails, foot rest and dome lamp are standard in all sedans. Assist cords, vanity sets and ash receiver are provided in the De Luxe sedan."

sons, and no radical doctrine must therein be taught.

So it goes.

The country is rich, and indolent. Literature is at its lowest ebb. Statesmanship is a forgotten art. Worldly pleasure, sexual indulgence, and gastronomic contests are the order of the day. Religion claims but little attention and the Sabbath passes unnoted and unnoticed by most people except as a day for speed tests in automobiles.

Wallowing in wealth, a nation looks upon the reformer as a misguided crank, and the voice crying out against its evils is wasted upon the desert air.

mittee. Mr. Levi, Mr. Scharr and Ernest W. Schween of Pleasanton, were called upon by President Rogers for brief remarks.

Mrs. Christiansen, after she took the chair, called on Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Huxzel and Mrs. Luhr for talks.

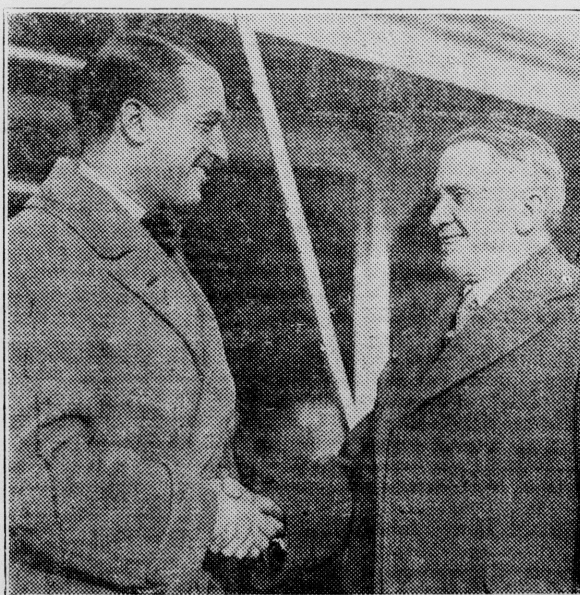

Clifford Rosa, W. F. Hall and Ernest W. Schween were members of the committee of Native Sons which prepared the installation program. The affair was said to have been one of the most pleasing ever held by the organization and much credit was given the committee.
